

Weekly Round-up

It has been a wonderful first week back and the children have all come back to school with positive attitudes and working really hard. It has been lovely to see new children enthused at their brand new topics for the term and seeing them immersed in their learning.

We kicked off the first week back with our annual Sports Day and I am sure you will agree that the children were amazing! They all tried their very best and it was fantastic to see all the children taking part.

Our outdoor learning sessions begin next week for pupils. Each class will have a week of outdoor learning and the children are very excited about this. Pupils will still come to school in their uniforms.

The Book Fair also arrives next week so please come along and take a look at some of the books on offers!
